CSR D NAMES NEW CORPORATE OFFICER

The Board of Directors has recently appointed Jennifer Sham as the Columbia Shuswap Regional District's (CSR D) Corporate Officer and Manager, Corporate Services.

As required by the Local Government Act, the Corporate Officer is accountable for the direction of legislative and corporate administration functions for the Regional District.

Sham brings more than 13 years of experience at the CSR D to her new role. Sham's background is in land-use planning as a Registered Professional Planner and member of the Planning Institute of British Columbia.

Starting as a Planner in the CSR D's Development Services Department, Sham then moved into Corporate Administration in 2018. By 2020, Sham was promoted to Deputy Manager, Corporate Administration. In 2022, she was also appointed the Chief Election Officer for the Sorrento-Blind Bay Incorporation assent vote and the upcoming General Local Elections in October.

Sham volunteers as the Chapter Director for the Thompson Okanagan Local Government Management Association and sits on the Local Government Management Association Board of Directors.

"The Board is very pleased to announce the addition of Jennifer Sham to the CSR D's senior leadership team," says Board Chair Kevin Flynn.

"We appreciate the dedication and expertise which she has brought to the organization during her time here. Jennifer is an energetic person who always goes above and beyond in her work. We know she will continue to play a vital role in the success of our organization moving forward," he adds.

Sham's appointment as Corporate Officer took effect May 1, 2022.
